

Tuesday 5 June

13:00-16:30	Registration University of Lausanne Campus, Synathion building
16:30-17:00	Welcome Room: Internet 263
17:00-18:00	Keynote Lecture: Prof. Annelies Knoppers, Utrecht University Room: Internet 263
18:00-18:30	ISSA Awards Ceremony Room: Internet 263
18:30-20:00	Welcome Reception Synathion building

Wednesday, 6 June

08.30-16.30	Registration University of Lausanne Campus, Synathion building
Session 1: 09:00-10:30	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport, Politics & Policy Chair: Rolando Drumondo	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport, Social Inclusion & Exclusion Chair: Brent McDonald	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport and Disability Chair: Gyozo Molnar	Room: 2218 Theme: Physical Education & School Sport Chair: Hitoshi Ebishima	Room: 2420 Theme: Sport & Media Chair: Agnes Elling-Machartzki	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Sport & Governance (French session) Chair: C. Perrin-Malterre
Presentation 1 09:00-09:20	Fernando Staropivo, Universidade Estadual de Maringa, BR: The importance of the administrative structure in the municipal public policies of sports and leisure in Brazil	Gianni Marras, Università d'Anzio, FR: The place of sport in the process of radicalization	Vernika Maclovice and Katerina Tomovic, Cluj-Napoca University, CZ: "I won and I share it". Using Facebook as a communication tool	Sine Nielsen, University of Copenhagen, DK: The paradox of the different social groups of adolescents relate to the subject PE in upper secondary school in Denmark	Ite Hartmann-Twe, German Sport University Cologne, DE: Gendered visual media coverage of the Olympic Games? A longitudinal content analysis of two newspapers in Germany from 2000 to 2016.	Camille Grouler, Université de Bretagne Occidentale, FR: Paratletisme des bénévoles et sportifs professionnels: le cas du Quimper Volley 29 Etc	Catherine Houston, University of Toronto, CA: "In my professional capacity, I've not encountered them legible" as seen of a club of sport professional: le cas du Quimper Volley 29 Etc
Presentation 2 09:20-09:40	Tsun-Chin Fan, National Taiwan Normal University, TW: China's Anti-Doping Policy and the World Anti-Doping Code	Cora Burnett-Lewis, University of Johannesburg, ZA: Discouraged realities and the ethics of responsive sport (for) development	Jessica Macbeth, University of Central Lancashire, GB: "We know who is a cheer and who is not. But what can you do?" Athletes' Perspectives on Classification in Visually Impaired Sport	Daniela Bonci, Università "G. d'Annunzio di Chieti - Pescara", IT: Social implications of physical education and sport activities in first level Italian schools	Cheryl Cooky, Purdue University, US: "The women's Olympics" or "basket at the Olympics": An investigation of narratives of progress and gender equality in U.S. media coverage.	Lélan Pichot, Université de Strasbourg, FR: Usages et limites du recours à l'analyse sociologique du sport: deux cas d'intervention de sociologie du sport + consultant + dans une association sportive (sportsifs) et dans une compagnie d'assurance	Andreas Jansen, University of Copenhagen, DK: Processes of Change in the Organization of Gymnastics in Denmark - From Community to Commercialism
Presentation 3 09:40-10:00	Philippe Camargo, Universidade Federal do Paraná, BR: Brazilian's Bolsa-Athleta Program: an elite sport policy or a Welfare Policy?	Hebe Schellke, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, BE: Advancing knowledge translation in the sociology of sport? A comparative analysis of two applied research projects	Bergo Güvün, Sakarya University, TR: Confronting Double Barriers: The Experiences of Women Athletes with Disabilities in Turkey	Anne Schmitt, Université Rennes 2, FR: Physical Education, gender and water sports: A French-California study of surfing and sailing high school programs.	Rababeh Mithael, George Sorghum University, US: How do the women of CrossFit use social media? An exploratory study to examine influences and impacts	Mohammed Mourir, Benabdelhalim, Université Kasdi Merbah, DZ: L'impact des acteurs du sport sur le comportement des administrateurs de sport: Le cas des fédérations sportives olympiques en Algérie	Annika Bodemar, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Doomed to fail? A study of how junior managers at a major sport event cope with leadership issues
Presentation 4 10:00-10:20	Michael Sam, University of Otago, NZ: Sport policy advocacy: Best of times and the age of foolishness	Fiona Dowling, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Integration on whose terms? A critical discourse analysis of the coherence of policy texts on sport and integration	Luciane Almino Tronin, Universidade de São Paulo, BR: The role of time in the construction of social inequalities in relation to disabilities	Tatza Khoumans, Federal University of Rioarante, BR: Brazilian School Games: a globalized model for school sport	Michael Ward, O.U.T. AU: ABC of Football: Public Broadcasting, Innovation and Audience Development	Clémence Perrin-Abblans, Université Sorbonne-Montparnasse, FR: Comment organiser un sport sans organisation?	Emile Salameh, Université de Poitiers, FR: Les dirigeants de structures sportives - un défi à la sociologie des groupes professionnels?
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break
Session 2: 11:00-12:30	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport & Gender Chair: Karl Fasting	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport & Governance Chair: Mike Sam	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport, Integration & Development Chair: Ansgar Thiel	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport, Health & Drugs Chair: Lucie Schoch	Room: 2420 Theme: Methods of Sociology of Sport Chair: Elizabeth Pike	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: ISCWAG Chair: Natalie Barker - Ruchti
Presentation 1 11:00-11:20	Lars Espeland, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Why and when do young people quit sports? Gender differences in Norwegian organized youth sports 2006-2015.	Josef Fahlen, Ulm University, SE: Mapping the playing field - Integration on whose terms? A critical discourse analysis of the coherence of policy texts on sport and integration	Jack Sugden, Edge Hill University, GB: The role of sport in reflecting and shaping group dynamics: The Intergroup Relations Continuum in elite rugby and soccer.	Sandrine Kriobé, University of Strasbourg, FR: Physical activity programs for health promotion: examples of sociological studies commissioned by local organizations	Funda Altan, Sakarya University, TR: Reflections on the Methodological and Ethical Experiences in Undertaking Cross-Cultural Qualitative Research with Turkish and British Clinicians	Roslyn Kerr, Lincoln University, NZ: Reflections on the socio-cultural dimensions of women's artistic gymnastics: A research tree approach	Tzu-Hsuan Chen, National Taiwan Sport University, TW: The improved nature of a football desert: The case of Xavier Chen
Presentation 2 11:20-11:40	Eyongji Foddis, University of Physical Education, HU: Professional Identity versus Gender Identity	Helen Mason, University of Pisa, IT: Italian and Norwegian grassroots sports systems in a comparative perspective: Content analysis for understanding organizational model	Christine Dallaire, University of Ottawa, CA: Becoming a "good person": young adult sport and recreation leaders at the Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa	Dominic Malo, Loughborough University, GB: Sports Sociological studies: Influencing Sports Organizations	Sanjay Towar, UP Athletics Association, IN: Sports Sociological studies: Influencing Sports Organizations	Fjoukje Smits, Utrecht University of Applied Sciences, NL: The grooming process in women's gymnastics: moving beyond the coach-athlete relationship by using a critical ecological perspective	Diego Guilemez, Universidade Anhembi Morumbi, BR: The professionalization of the female and the sports mega-events: The case of the Rio 2016 Olympics.
Presentation 3 11:40-12:00	Sophie Lingham, Ersta Skövde Health University College, SE: Creating gender equality in Swedish golf clubs. What are the problems, goals and methods for change?	Yaling Huang, Beijing Sport University, CN: What has changed by network sports organization?	Simone Salsiderova, Polityka Implementation of the Peace Leaders Program in Colombia	Mary McDonald, Georgia Institute of Technology, US: The Politics of Coaching NCAA Athletes for Sex: Cell Tail	Larissa Lara, State University of Maringá, BR: Physical culture in Physical Cultural Studies theory and in Brazilian Physical Education: theoretical-conceptual equivalences and differences in the thematization of sport, body and its practices	Marian Numunura, University of São Paulo, BR: Older Gymnasts in Women's Artistic Gymnastics: Moving Beyond a Bodily Focus	Liang Shen, Shanghai University, CN: Transformation of Tai Chi: Chair: Globalization and the Development of Dilemmas in Traditional Chinese Martial Arts
Presentation 4 12:00-12:20	Veneta Lorenz, Aalborg University, DK: The ban of women only swimming lessons targeting Muslim women in Denmark	Hans Erik Ness, Kristiana International Sports Associations and Politics	Chris Russell, University of Worcester, GB: Exploring the experiences of people with dementia using leisure centres. The transformative power of this new learning for the offering leisure centres make to individuals and their local communities.	Parvaz Sadi, York University, CA: Health Politics: A Thematic Analysis of Sport-Specific Crowdfunding	Asmit Schubring, University of Gothenburg, SE: Challenges and possibilities of prospective research elite sport: insights from the Path to Rio study	Christine Messinsson and Sylvia Voser, Universität Paul Sabatier Toulouse 3, FR: Be beautiful, be fit: the gender regime in rhythmic gymnastics and his effects on young bodies	Sylvain Fenez, Université de Montpellier, FR: From São Francisco (1962) to Paris Gay Games (2018): The Role of Mega-events in the Structuring of the French LGBT Sport
12:30-13:30	Lunch
Session 3 13:30-14:30	Plenary: Roundtable - "Who still wants to organise the Olympics?" Room: Internet 263
Session 4: 14:30-16:00	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport & Ethics Chair: Bertrand Finocur	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport, Race & Ethnicity Chair: Elynd Skille	Room: 2212 Theme: Leisure and Sport Chair: Tomohiro Ishioka	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport & Politicization Chair: John Horne	Room: 2420 Theme: Youth Sports Chair: Ornuif Seppel	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: ISCWAG Chair: Roslyn Kerr
Presentation 1 14:30-14:50	Che Ting Sun, National Chiao Tung University, TW: The Future of Competitive Sports under the Development of Assisted Reproductive Technologies	Eric Bourque, Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1, FR: Minimalism, user's creativity and innovation through withdrawal: "Marche Ultra-Léger" (Ultra-Light Backpacking) in France	John Kelly, University of Edinburgh, GB: British Football Governing Bodies, FIFA And the Politics of The Pussy	Rachel Cunningham, University of Lausanne, CH: Getting past the gatekeeper: selective recruitment, support, widening access and young cyclists experiences inside training institutions	Carly Clewett, Bournemouth University, GB: Let's talk about gender based violence and gymnastics (ISCWAG session)	Elizabeth Booth, University of Greenwich, GB: "Gymnastics is in our blood": "Russian coaches" reflections on women's artistic gymnastics: A preliminary thematic analysis of interviews with national artistic gymnastics coaches from the former Soviet Union and the Russian Federation. For the ISCWAG network	Alexandra Anelino, University of Ottawa, CA: Indigenous outdoor interpretation for a land-based pedagogy of reconciliation
Presentation 2 14:50-15:10	Dajmar Abbas, Dubai Sport Council, AE: The Impact of Sports Values on Community and Professionalism	Berit Skjerve, Høland Norway University of Applied Sciences, NO: Sami and Indigenous festivals in Norway	Paul Moore, University of Brunel, CA: The Rise of the Striving Runner and the Striving Female in North America	Lisa McDonnell, University of Alberta, CA: War Games, Canada and the Politics of Torture and Grieving	Ik Young Chang, Korea National Sport University, KR: Institutional Reasons: Parenting in Children's Involvement in Football	Anna-Claudia Pihlens, University Institute of Maia, PT: Experiences of pain and injury in male and female artistic gymnastics: A figurational sociological study	Graham Spooey, University of Johannesburg, ZA: Insights: Physical Education, School Sport and National Development Goals in the South African Public School System
Presentation 3 15:10-15:30	Pim Verschuuren, University of Lausanne, CH: Analyzing perception and experience of whistleblowing from sport actors	William Almeida, Universidade de São Paulo, BR: The role of immigrants in the Brazilian Olympic sailing	Al-Zheir, Al-Jadid Academy, BR: The Relationship Self-efficacy and some of Demographic Characteristics with Leisure Time Physical Activities of Iranian Workers	Akira Ohta, Waseda University, JP: The Sociological Meaning of Japan's Long-Distance Relay Road Racing	Nicolas Delorme, University of Bordeaux, FR: A comparative analysis of the female sports role-models among French and Romanian young girls	Anika Lestio-Walker, University of Bolton, GB: Reconciling Activism in Sport and Leisure: The Agenda for Female Tourists	Nicolas Perrin, Université d'Artois, BR: Que fait le sport pour l'intégration, dans la ville à plus pauvre de France?
Presentation 4 15:30-15:50	Stigvard Lohnd, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Performance enhancing drugs, sport, and the ideal of natural athletic performance	Nikolaus Dickerson, University of Lincoln, GB: Memeing White Nationalism: An-Rights Social Media Reactions to Colin Kaepernick	Sanyana Thwait, St Petersburg State University, RU: Dance and Sports: A dialogue between the body and the sport	Tamas Dóczi, University of Physical Education, HU: The teleoconscious journey from Lyon to Luxembourg: football and national identity in Hungary	Haavard Dalen, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Belonging to Sports: Sports, Schools or Individuals
16:00-16:30	Poster Session and Coffee Break (Ground Floor, Synathion Building)
16:30-17:30	ISSA Annual General Meeting (Room: 1216)
18:15-20:00	Visit and Cocktail Reception at the Olympic Museum

Thursday, 7 June

Registration University of Lausanne Campus, Synathlon building
08.30-16.30
Session 5: 09.00-10.30	Room: 1216 Theme: Olympism/ Olympic Studies Chair: Tzu-Hsuan Chen	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport and Gender Chair: Ilse Hartmann-Tews	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport & Violence Chair: Ramon Spaaij	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport, Social Inclusion & Exclusion Chair: Cora Burnett-Louw	Room: 2420 Theme: Physical Education & School Sport Chair: Pasi Koski	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Other (French Session) Chair: S. Frenkiel
09.00-09.20	Nazare Quintillo, University of Sao Paulo, BR: Meanings of competing: the multiple understandings of the championship experience among elementary school students	Maria Kivimäki, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: The combination of work and family life: the experiences of female elite coaches	Fernando Segura Milan Tico, UFG (Brazil) CIDE (Mx), BR: Death and violence in the Argentinian football	Roger LeBaron, Université de Montréal, CA: The 30-30 Model: The Inclusion of Seniors in community-based Physical Activity Initiatives	Akron Eshima, Seijo University, JP: The formation of habits through sporting activities in Japanese schools	Guillaume Sempal, Université Rennes 2, FR: Rapports sociaux de sexe et de politique sportive locale, L'exemple du 19ème arrondissement de Paris
09.20-09.40	PHH Hallén, Saint Leo University, US: Olympic City Legacies: Past and Future	Rigoberto Abadilla, Institut National d'Éducation Physique de Catalunya (INEFC), ES: The impact of organizational factors on work-life balance in man and women coaches	Luz Pinarro Lamas, Federal University of Goiás, BR: Police Practice and Goals fans' behavior: which possibilities of a dialogic strategy?	Anne Tønness, Nord University, NO: Emergence of new sports and social inclusion: The development of Mixed Martial Arts in Norway	Ingrid Thorsjussen, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Teacher – student communication in a multiethnic PE class	Christophe Goblet, Université Claude Bernard - Lyon 1, FR: L'art martial contre le sport: comment devient moderne tout ce qui préservait la tradition?
09.40-10.00	Christophe Guibert, University of Angers, France: L'analyse de la société masculine au prisme de la sociologie des pratiques sportives. Retour sur deux enquêtes de terrain	Manuela Pissarello, Texas Woman's University, US: Organizational environment and mentoring: challenges and opportunities for female executives in the National Basketball Association (NBA)	Jeffrey Bahena, Victoria University, AU: MMA - It's a bloody sport! An examination of violence and the practice of MMA	Pinar Yigras Kemahci lu, Gaz University, TR: Health promoting lifestyle dispositions of women in terms of their participation in local recreational activities: a study in Ankara	Gay Sæviak, University of Brighton, GB: Values-based Teaching and Learning through Physical Education – Applying the Football 4 Peace International Methodology	Fabien Wille, University of Lille, FR: Light: un motif de discrimination professionnelle dans les communautés sportives
10.00-10.20	Zhaoming Sun, Beijing Sport University, CN: Sports Events and Social Integration of New Urban Immigrants: An Empirical Study on the Home Games of Beijing Ducks Basketball Club	Sara Kosmopoulou, University of Jyväskylä, FI: Equity, equality or 'topical' etc. - Discourse analysis of sport organizations' talk of equality policy and gender equity	Daniel Adams, O'Brien County's Sports Confederation, SE: Sport and its potential as a violent preventive measure	Nicholas Hoolahan, University of Tasmania, AU: Volunteering at the Australian Masters Games: Motivations and Outcomes	Cher Ross, University of Johannesburg, ZA: Teaching values physical education	Stanislas Frenkiel, UFR STAPS de l'Université d'Orléans, FR: Socio-histoire des footballeurs professionnels liés à Roubaix: carrières sportives, trajectoires sociales et reconversions professionnelles (1953-2013)
10.30-11.00	Coffee Break
Session 6: 11.00-12.30	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport & Media Chair: Steve Jackson	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport & Gender/Sport and Sexuality Chair: Mary McDonald	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport, Health and Drugs Chair: Fabien Ohl	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport, Politics & Policy Chair: Catherine Palmer	Room: 2420 Theme: Sport & New Technologies Chair: John Horne	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Gérontologie and society Chair: P. Henaff-Pineau
11.00-11.20	Joel Richter-McDaniels, South College, US: From "Social Outcast" to "Champion of the Year": Upgrading HIV Prevalence in Media Coverage of Colin Kaepernick	Fiona McLachlan, Victoria University, AU: One gender forward for women? A feminist poststructuralist analysis of La Course by the Tour de France	Laurie Patterson, Leeds Beckett University, GB: Is a problem shared a problem halved? Exploring anti-doping roles of athletes support personnel in a single club environment	Adam Evans, University of Coventry, GB: Active Aging Policy and Associative Democracy in Practice: A Critique of the "Neoliberal" critique	Conghui Pang, Nanjing Sport Institute, CN: Blockchain + Sport = ?	Mathieu Delalande, UPEM, FR: La prévention des crises chez les personnes âgées - des organisations sportives au centre des politiques de prévention de la dépendance
11.20-11.40	Lawrence Warner, Loyola Marymount University, US: Race, Communication and Sporting Masculinities: Dri and the NFL Draftback in Super Bowl Commercial	Karl Fasting, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Female elite coaches in a man's world	Kelley Erickson, Leeds Beckett University, GB: RE-ACT – A Clean Sport Byproduct Investigation Program	Sarah Gee, University of Windsor, CA: "We need to make sure we're doing a good job" and "at the end of the day money talks and bodies can't be choosers": Alcohol sponsorship and New Zealand provincial rugby unions	Stephan Sieges, Ryerson University, CA: Cores, Females and Gender: How Bloggers and Advanced Analytics Are Changing the NFL, part 2 - the results	Jerémy Pinaud, UPEM, FR: S'élèver à un modèle de développement pour la France à l'étranger?
11.40-12.00	Orinley Turcato, Charles University of Prague, CZ: Sports journalism and media through the eyes of athletes	Maddeline Pope, University of Wisconsin-Madison, US: Culture of Wisconsin's elite sports: a feminist poststructuralist analysis of a Wisconsin Six in International Sport	Bernard Fincoeur, University of Lausanne, CH: Doping in Mixed Martial Arts: first results of an exploratory research	Bastian Presest, University of Lausanne, CH: Measuring bodies in movement. Questionable promises of professional athletes on social media: Social identities matter	Ellen MacPherson, University of Toronto, CA: Public sharing of professional athletes on social media: Social identities matter	Sandra Beauchamp, Université Paris-Est Marne la Vallée, FR: La marche chez les seniors
12.00-12.20	Eunhye Yoo, Seoul National University, KR: I am self-censoring can't post what I want on my account? Sports stars' self-censoring on SNS accounts	Ann Stensrud, The Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Sexual harassment or acceptable interaction? Young people defining ambiguous and more or less serious situations in sport	Isabel Mendes, Université Fédérale du Rio Grande do Norte, BR: Bodybuilding, sweat et dopage au Brésil	Fumihito Kaneko, University of Tsukuba, JP: "Keep Calm and Get on with It": Hosting the London 2012 Olympic Games on the Governance and High Performance Strategy of National Governing Bodies of Sport in the United Kingdom	Nicolas Besombes, Paris Descartes University, FR: The institutionalization of electronic sports: The example of France	Pia Henaff-Pineau, Université Paris-Sud, FR: L'adaptation de la pratique des sports de grand âge - objet de négociations
12.30-13.30	Lunch
Session 7: 13.30-15.00	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport and Youth Chair: Ik Young Chang	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport, Politics & Policy Chair: Sarah Cox	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport & (Post-) Colonialism / Race & Ethnicity Chair: Bente Ovedie Skogvang	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport & Gender Chair: Christine Messner	Room: 2420 Theme: Methods of Sociology of Sport Chair: Astrid Schüring	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Gérontologie and society Chair: Emmanuelle Tulle
13.30-13.50	Elmur Sæppel, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Youth, Fitness and Social Inequalities	Rolands Drumunds, Université de Fribourg, FR: The participation of non-Swiss community athletes in Sport Mega-events	Eivind Skille, Norway Inland University of Applied Sciences, NO: Same community, different sides of the same coin?	Ying Chang, China University of Technology, TR: Healthcare, beauty myth and empowerment: the gender implications of the practice of sport and consumption of leisure in Taipei's municipal sport centers	Sarah Anthony, University of Lincoln, GB: Walking the Deck: Methodological considerations and preliminary findings from a sociological-phenomenological study of embodied, sensory experiences in performance swimming	Emmanuelle Tulle, Gießen Graduate School University, GB: A New Form of Life? Physical Activity and the reconstruction of the ageing body
13.50-14.10	Christa Köstmann, University of Bam, CH: Patterns of sports behaviour in youth and young adults	Mati Gokaryn, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Dilemmas of international sports organizations in times of crisis: An ideological/political model reality. The FIFA and the FIS seen from a small country during the 2 World War	Carlos Bueno, Universidade Federal do Paraná, BR: The Investigation of Local Symbolic Contents in Sociological Research: Considerations Regarding the Chinese Concept of Ti Yu	Andreas Axel, University of Fribourg, CH: Health discourses and risk of physical activity in socially disadvantaged communities: A comparative analysis in four European Countries	Seweryn Drowiak, University of Warsaw, PL: Theoretical and Methodological Aspects of Qualitative Research on Football Fans: Case Study of Legia Warszawa Ultras	Chaire Marie-Glorie Gosselin, Université de Sherbrooke, GB: Creating a space for older women in sports organizations
14.10-14.30	Colin Gascuette, Institut des Sciences du Mouvement E. J. Marey, FR: Qualitative analysis of disengagement in sports practice among youth people in middle school and high school in France	Dana Joseph, George Fox University, US: Preparing time: Its conceptualization, operationalization, measurement, and significance	Jamie Cleland, University of South Australia, AU: Racial prejudice, whiteness and capital negotiation on sports fan message boards	Yunjung Kim, Seoul National University, KR: South Korean Women's Experience in the "Aesthetic" Fitness Industry	Cameron Smees, Victoria University, AU: Capturing the Moment? The use of video analysis in understanding physical interactions in Primary PE	Catherine Palmer, University of Tasmania, AU: Becoming and being a Master's athlete?
14.30-14.50	Ismael Casas Ballo, University of Bath, GB: Youth sport choices and disadvantaged young people: Re-thinking participation through neoliberalism	Cecilia Stenwig, Umeå University, SE: From reaction to proaction: Tracing the emergence of sport policy advocacy in a neoliberalized policy context	Jacop Stenflenberg, Erasmus University Rotterdam, NL: Racialized discourses in sport media and how do audiences and journalists react?	Nancy Malcolm, Georgia Southern University, US: The Looking Glass Athlete: Female CrossFiters Reflect on Self
Session 8: 15.00-16.00	Plenary: Roundtable - "Doping studies: are social scientists parasites of sports organisations?" Room: Internef 263
16.00-16.30	Coffee Break
Session 9: 16.30-18.00	Room: 1216 Theme: Sporting Careers Chair: Chris Hallinan	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport and Human Rights Chair: IBC	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport, Health and Drugs Chair: Dominic Malcolm	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport & Governance Chair: David Rowe	Room: 2420 Theme: Sport and Social Class Chair: Tamas Doczi	Room: ISDC Theme: Olympism/ Olympic studies (French session) Chair: M. Cornejo
16.30-16.50	Edgore Douard, Université d'Artois, FR: The Career of a Sports Reference: Constraints and Challenges	Inger Ekansson, Umeå University, SE: Evidence of emotional abuse in children's sport - children's perspectives	Mikhail Stryukov, Saint-Petersburg State University, RU: Russian perceptions of doping scandal: examining sociological data	Agnes Elmg-Macharski, Müller Institute, NL: Towards more in-depth understanding of enhancing gender equality in sport governance	Christina Gipson, Georgia Southern University, US: Critical factors identified to manage and maintain diverse partnerships for CrossFit programs serving underserved youth: Prioritizing health and physical activity	Aggelos Cornelis, Universidad de Cádiz, ES: Le Stade-Boutade aux Jeux Olympiques: Le conflit de principes dans la symbolique des espaces sportifs. Cas du CHS
16.50-17.10	Colin Hickey, Université de Lausanne, CH: It's No Joke: Battered in The Workplace Environments Of The Premier League	Gasther Kot, University of Toronto, CA: Promoting athletic welfare: A proposal for an international surveillance system	Ian Ritchie, Brock University, CA: From Crisis to Split: The Creation of Canada's Anti-Doping Policies, 1983-1993	Jørud Holden, Norwegian University of Science & Technology, NO: Gender equality, discourses and strategies in European sport leadership	Wolfram Marzammerl, University of Vienna, AT: Precarious masculinity and sport betting in Japan: Working class bodies at the welcome	Yves Morales, Université Paul Sabatier, FR: Les Fédérations Françaises sportives: athlètes face aux défis du vieillissement (1990-2017)
17.10-17.30	Fau Mateu, Institut Nacional d'Educació Física de Catalunya (INEFC), ES: Elite athletes and/or students? Organizational characteristics of the dual career programs in Catalan universities	Ryan Kofras, University of Alberta, CA: "Qualitative Research and Human Rights: Towards an Epistemology of Care"	Moran Sandvik, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Alternative paths in anti-doping education for talented elite athletes: A case study of young Norwegian road cyclists	Lucy Piggott, University of Chichester, GB: An exploration of gendered power relations within the leadership teams of two English national governing bodies of sport	Gioffrey Kohe, University of Kent, GB: Career welfare, employment progression and duties of care in elite sport: A European regional examination of sport organization initiatives and worker issues	Cyril Thomas, Université Claude Bernard, FR: France et Kenya: des relations athlétiques post coloniales? (1960-2016)
17.30-17.50	Luis Olivé Assumpção, Brasília Catholic University, BR: Social, cultural and symbolic interpretation of pain and injury in martial arts	Peter Donnelly, University of Toronto, CA: Harassment and Abuse in Canadian Sport: Rethinking a Failing Policy	Maria Overbye, University of Stirling, GB: How legitimizing "doping under medical supervision" might impact athletes' working environments in the precarious occupation of sport	Annabelle Caprau, Université de Bordeaux, FR: What is the desirable and legitimate representativeness of women's sport governance? A quantitative research on the French Executive Boards	Mathilde Lenoir, Paris Nanterre University, FR: Knowledge as a key factor for the structuring of an economic sector? The case of the private sector of sports in France since the 1980s	Fabrice Burtel, French Sport of Football, FR: Le double projet d'appréhension de la performance sportive
18.00-21.30	Sport and Party by the Lake

Friday, 8 June

Registration University of Lausanne Campus, Synathlon building
08.30-15.00
Session 10: 09:00-10:30	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport Business & Management Chair: Geoffrey Koke	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport & Politicization Chair: Lone Frils Thing	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport & Gender Chair: Cheryl Cooky	Room: 2218 Theme: Physical Education and School Sport Chair: Jacco Van Sterkenburg	Room: 2420 Theme: Sport & Disability Chair: Parissa Safai	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Sport & Violence (French Session) Chair: N. Soldano
09:00-09:20	Pinar Kocak, University of Turku, FI: Changing sports clubs in changing world: Case Finland	Geir Marie Solstad, The Norwegian School of Sport Studies, NO: Athlete wellbeing on the sports policy agenda: A social movement theory perspective	Luz Hoyos, Universidad Pedagógica Nacional, CO: Development of sport for women in Colombia. The perspective of high performance female athletes.	Atsushi Nakazawa, Waseda University, JP: How do teachers interpret school sports in Japan? A historical analysis of educational movements in Japan: Teachers' Union (1951-1989)	Spoko Mihov, University of Wroclaw, PL: Broadening Perspectives in Adapted Physical Activity Research	Nicolas Soldano, Université Paris Est Marne-la-Vallée, FR: Les nouvelles formes de mobilité et d'organisations du sport/terme Football et accoutumance des déplacements
09:20-09:40	Atlan Grenvåg, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: The role of the High Performance Manager in the elite sport system: A review of the literature and a search for gaps	Marietta Baggio, Università del Piemonte Orientale, IT: Popular participation and sport: an analysis of the civil society's contributions to changes in the integrity and governance of Brazilian National Governing Bodies of Sport	Daniel Afora, Universidad de Guanajuato, MX: The social, political and legal foundations of the professional Mexican football women's league: an approach from Canada's national and existing societies	Mark Mierzwański, York St John University, GB: Embodied masculinities, power relations and 'bullying' in Male Physical Education	Sa Wu, China Institute of Sport Science, CN: A Systematic map of the field of disability sport and/or adapted physical activity literature: A call to Chinese Sport Scholars	Thibaut Daffreux, Université d'Orléans - Équipe 3 URNPSS, FR: Compromises violents sur les terrains du "démarche": le cas des jeunes sportifs
09:40-10:00	Camille Bissard, University of Pau, FR: High reliability organizations and management of sport teams: what similarities and differences? An exploratory research on high level practices	Felipe Tobias, Clemson University, US: The disclosure of the political backdrop around the institutionalization processes of the Brazilian National Football Team	Aygal Turc, Gazd University, TR: Social Gender Identity and Participation to Futsal: A Qualitative Research with the Sportswomen in Intersiversity	Sinan Chen, Tongji University, CN: Research on the Current Situation of and Countermeasures of University Sports Communities	Rémi Richard, Université de Montpellier, FR: The Cyathion: Third kind of Games or Games of a Third kind?	Andreas Pavlat, Université De Caen, FR: Le sport comme moyen pour combattre le terrorisme
10:00-10:20	Rongrong Chen, Beijing Sport University, CN: Governance Modernization of World Sailing	Shava Zabba, Ghent University, BE: The structural function of community sport	Laurent Pascaud, Université de Lausanne, CH: Being Disabled... Playing Powerball Hockey: A Life-course Approach to Gender and Disability Identity Dynamics	Anne Binotti, Université de Strasbourg, FR: Intégrer l'inclusion professionnelle des diplômés en sciences du sport: apports, limites et effets d'une comparaison des ports de vue des diplômés et des employeurs
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break
Session 11: 11:00-12:30	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport Globalization & Mega-Events Chair: Elizabeth Pike	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport, Power Relations & Empowerment Chair: Peter Donnelly	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport Coaching & Pedagogy Chair: Mari Kristin Sjøjord	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport, Social Inclusion & Exclusion Chair: Brent McDonald	Room: 2420 Theme: Sport and Governance Chair: Pinar Yaprak Kemalolu	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Sport & Gender Chair: Gyongyi S. Foldesi
11:00-11:20	Nathalie Pridemont, University of Bayreuth, DE: Determinants of the perception of Olympic spectators: Comparative empirical evidence	Fran Pascard, University of Lausanne, CH: Confidence relationships in women's cycling: the stakes of the credibility of performances.	Clare Mulvane, University of Bolton, UK: An investigation in to how soccer coaches attempt to amplify address the needs: how players have for participating in sport	Ramon Spaaij, Victoria University, AU: Building the strength and cohesion of Australian Muslim communities? A multi-method evaluation of a sport-based employability program	Michaël Mikoyic, Swiss Federal Institute of Sport Magglingen, CH: Assessing Sports Governance Principles and Indicators	Amy Clark, Canterbury Christ Church University, GB: I found that being back actually made me not on edge, and I didn't feel treatment! Women's embodied experiences of sexist humour in a UK gym
11:20-11:40	Tomonori Uchida, Hokkaido University, JP: Olympic Infrastructure: Exploring the Materiality of Sporting Mega-events	Thomas Zanini, EESP - Haute école de travail social de la santé, CH: Construction of standpoint and girls' empowerment in taekwondo and football in French-speaking Switzerland	Tor Söderström, Umeå University, SE: The meaning and significance of physiological tests from the perspective of elite athletes	İlker Hacısalihoğlu, İstanbul Gelik University, TR: Grassroots Football as an Apparatus for Social Inclusion of Refugee Children in Turkey: The Case of the Football Friendship Project	Gaete Heyerdahl, Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, NO: Managed commercialisation or free sport market? Challenges to organised sport	Philipp Vellek, Southampton Solent University, GB: Lad Culture - University Sport and Sport Courses
11:40-12:00	Alison Machado, Instituto Federal do Paraná, BR: The opening ceremony of the 2016 Summer Olympics: Brazil imagined from the representations of body	Jeanne Clarke, Leeds Trinity University / Sheffield Hallam University, UK: To what extent are Sport-for-Development partners on the same page? An analysis of the key programme features and delivery methods from an NGO and local stakeholder perspective	Melanie Damml, Florida State University, US: Critical Consciousness of Sport Educators	George Harwood, Queensland University of Technology, AU: What is the Meaning of Sport for Young People from Refugee Backgrounds? A Case Study of a State High School in Brisbane, Queensland	Erden Dalko, University of Salerno, IT: Reform effectiveness and unresolved issues in football: the case of Turkish Super Lig	Montserrat Merin, Université de Vic / Universitat Central de Catalunya, ES: Sexual harassment in sport: power and the construction of the feminine body
12:00-12:20	Helene Jocherey, French Sport Institute, FR: The social construction of sports performance: the case of athletes from the French Olympic team
12:30-13:30	Lunch
Session 12: 13:30-15:00	Room: 1216 Theme: Sport, Politics & Policy Chair: Mike Sam	Room: 1222 Theme: Sport & Media Chair: Lawrence Wanner	Room: 2212 Theme: Sport Organizations in Switzerland: Challenges and Problems/Leisure Chair: Kord Hovden	Room: 2218 Theme: Sport and Youth Chair: Nicolas Delorme	Room: 2420 Theme: Other Chair: Sanjay Tewari	Room: ISDC 1 Theme: Sport & Disability (French Session) Chair: A. Marcellini
13:30-13:50	Katrin Fabian, LaTribune College, US: Diplomacy on a Different Field: International Games and Nation-Building in the Politics of Sport in Contemporary Hungary	Steven Jackson, University of Otago, NZ: Life After Death: Sport Advertising and the Commodification of the Past	Anne-Katrina Solmberger, University of Jyväskylä, FI: Volunteer profile, motivation and intention for future volunteering at the European Transient Sport Week	Solveig Husviken, University of Gothenburg, SE: Understanding and researching youth football injuries with an interdisciplinary approach: Current issues and future perspectives	Václav Holubáček, University of Jyväskylä, FI: The Sport Success of Iceland: A sociological analysis of how the national teams of a tiny nation emerged on the international sports scene	Anne Marcellini, University of Lausanne, CH: Les sportives et handicapées physiques: « des femmes modèles ? Étude de cas dans une association handisport de l'association Madame TV » de la Radio Télévision Suisse, 1967
13:50-14:10	Milos Labak, University of Creta, GR: Geopolitical Interests vs. Sport: The Bad Story of Football and Reconstruction in Cyprus	David Rowe, Western Sydney University, AU: Searching for Elysium: Post-Amateur Sport and the Socio-Cultural	Sheghed Nagel, University of Bern, CH: Satisfaction of volunteers in sports clubs in Europe: individual and structural factors	Aimer Abana, Aseco de Davao University, PH: Impact of Independent Athletics Meets in The Philippines: The Blue Knights Track League Experience	Hsiuh-Hung Cheng, National Taiwan Sport University, TW: The cultural heritage and contemporary meanings of taekwondo - A study of professional taekwondo players in Taiwan	Sébastien Ruffin, Université des Antilles, GP: Structuration du handisport en Guadeloupe: Entre dépendances et revendications à l'autonomie en contexte post-colonial
14:10-14:30	Donghyu Ha, University of Ottawa, CA: The site for donor's domestic and foreign affairs: discourse of South Korea's overseas sport volunteer programs	Alice Anagnostou Takalova, Charles University, CZ: Twenty Years After: Czech Hockey and Feline Hockey of Nagano 1998 Olympic Games	Amy Adler Zuehlke, University of Bern, CH: Sports clubs as a medium for integrating immigrants	Tomohiro Utsumi, Hokkaido University, JP: The Japan Football Association and its Player Development Program: The Process of Gaining Legitimacy	Yu-Hua Lo, National Taiwan Sport University, TW: From Diaspora to Globalization: Transformation of National Identity of Israel via World Baseball Classic	Guil Vilborg, Université des Antilles, GP: Les singularités rapports entre « handicap mental » et « sport » dans une association sociale et sportive de personnes handicapées physiques en Guadeloupe
14:30-14:50	Yeejin Kiwon, Korea National Sport University, KR: Korean Male Dancers and Their Responses to Military Exemption Opportunities	Alanna Haman, St John's University, US: Is the Media in Sport Advertising Media Portrayal of Mixed Synchronized Swimming Duet at PISA World Championships?			Amy Conrad, University of Wollongong, AU: Building public health capacity through organizational change in the sport system	Ariane Gan, Université Paris Sud, FR: L'acceptation culturelle du handisport en Europe par le prisme des conflits législatifs sportifs
19:00-22:00	Dinner at the Châlet Suisse

ISSA 2018 POSTER SESSION

Wednesday, 6 June

16:00-16:30	Poster Session and Coffee Break Ground Floor, Synathlon Building
	Poster #1: Methodology of the Unimpressed: On Becoming Zen Megan Chawensky, University of Kentucky, US
	Poster #2: Equity, Organisational Commitment and Atrophy Among Physical Education Teachers of Tehran City Elzabe Rahni, Islamic Azad University, IR
	Poster #3: The Influences of the Educational Theory of Progressivism in Modern Physical Education Jong-Hoon Yu, Glenville State College, US
	Poster #4: The attitudes of college student-athletes and coaches toward gay men and lesbian athletes in Taiwan Yu-Hsien Tseng, National Taiwan University, TW
	Poster #5: Media coverage at Rio 2016 Olympics: construction of women soccer player's image by the press Clarissa Raposo, Universidade Federal do Maranhão (UFMA), BR
	Poster #6: Thank God for Stretch Jeans Anna Halstenson Osterberg, Linnaeus University, SE
	Poster #7: Professional baseball match-fixing scandals in Taiwan, 1997-2010: A Confucianism perspective Pina-Chao Lee, National Taichung University of Education, TW
	Poster #8: Attainment in sports: Relationship between Team Cohesion and success Syed Ibrahim, King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals, SA
	Poster #9: Violence and Sport: The Case of Professional Football in Turkey Veyisel Kuyuk, Marmara University, TR
	Poster #10: Men's Rhythmic Gymnastics and its internationalization: a study from Bourdieu's concepts Tabata Kikui, State University of Campinas, BR
	Poster #11: Content analysis of Iranian media coverage of Wrestling before and after the 2016 Olympics Hamid Soryan, Islamic Azad University, IR
	Poster #12: Communication System in The Plan for Healthy China 2030 He Zhu, Peking University, CN
	Poster #13: The application of ecology intervention model in adolescent health promotion Zhihui Yang, Tongji University, CN